KCS MEMBERSHIP

Our growing global network of over 150 members currently operate in more than 180 countries around the world. Our Members work in all sectors and range from small grassroots or community-based organisations, to large INGOs and corporations. Each year our Members help support over 125 million children.

As a network, we actively support each other in advancing child safeguarding in our own organisations and networks, co-produce tools and resources, share challenges, good practices and ideas, alongside the latest research and evidence.

Together we represent a powerful and growing global voice advocating for an end to child abuse in all organisations.

'A strong safeguarding culture is crucial to the elimination of all forms of violence against children. Promoting the highest standards is a priority for me.'

Najat Maalla M'jid

Special Representative of the Secretary-General on Violence against Children

From the KCS Online Summit 2020.

WHY JOIN OUR NETWORK?

Joining our network demonstrates a commitment to safeguarding children in your organisation and to helping defend children's right to be safe in organisations worldwide.

For almost two decades Keeping Children Safe has accompanied tens of thousands of organisations, serving millions of children across the world, to improve their child safeguarding measures. From absolute beginners to experienced global child safeguarding advocates and practitioners, we offer all our Members confidential and independent child safeguarding advice, tools, resources, training and signposting to meet their specific needs.

We are completely independent, and all our advice is guided by the International Child Safeguarding Standards and the rights and best interests of the child or children concerned.

Our global events and community of practice extends to all sectors and includes practitioners, researchers, policy-makers and leaders from every region of the world.

Our standards and guidance are subject to continuous review and quality-assurance by an independent global committee of expert practitioners and researchers, based on the latest evidence.

MEMBERSHIP LEVELS

Network

Members

Becoming a Network Member gives you access to all the membership benefits and demonstrates your organisation's commitment to child safeguarding.

Accredited

Members

KCS Network Members can choose to highlight the quality of their child safeguarding by applying to become an Accredited Member. KCS will review central level child safeguarding policies and procedures to assess how near or far an organisation is from meeting the International Child Safeguarding Standards. If satisfactory evidence is provided, the organisation will be awarded Accredited Member status and will be entitled to use the KCS Accredited Member logo, for all communications. Accredited Membership is the first step in verifying your organisation has taken significant steps to implementing child safeguarding.

Certified

Members

Members that meet the quality assurance requirements of the KCS Certification Scheme will be awarded Certified Member status. This rigorous ten-stage process offers external verification by practitioners that child safeguarding measures are fit for purpose. Certified Member is the highest level of safeguarding assessment we provide and comes with the right to use the KCS Certified Member logo, a visible symbol of quality performance in child safeguarding. Certified Members can apply for Certification Level 2 which includes KCS conducting site visits.

MEMBERSHIP FEES

The annual membership fees are dependent on your organisation's annual income. To become an Accredited Member, you should first apply to become a Network Member. Certified Member fees can vary, as every certification process is tailored to an organisation's structure and activities.

Please note, membership of the KCS Network does not offer an assurance that individuals are suitable to work with children. All organisations should carry out comprehensive background checks.
